

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

P. 4, l. 2.—Probably this name is Stutteville.

P. 11, l. 5.—No year is given, so it is impossible to say whether this entry belongs to 1700 or 1701.

P. 16.—Between 1808 and 1811 no years are given, and I found it impossible to fix them. It must not be supposed that all these belong to 1808.

P. 69.—“Except Nos. 31 and 32” should be “except Nos. 32 and 33.”

In Baptisms, Sept. 1832, Sep. 1837, Oct. 1843, Sept. 1845, Nov. 1846, for Lady Katherine Hervey read Lady Katherine Jermyn.

IT is to be hoped that before very long every Parish in the land will be compelled by law to have its Registers printed. It should be done at the expence of the rates, unless the Parish chooses to do it otherwise. But it should be done somehow, and that right soon. That there should be these valuable and interesting documents lying unprinted, and therefore unsecured against destruction, is simply disgraceful. To print is to preserve. Who prints, preserves ; who says, Don't print, practically says, Don't preserve, or at any rate Don't secure, which is nearly as bad. But besides preserving and securing, printing also unlocks the chest, and sends the knowledge of its contents to whosoever will have it. And surely there must be some in all quarters of the world, who desire to know the contents of the parish chest, when that parish has been the home and the sepulchre of their fathers.

The Parish Registers of Ickworth are in good preservation. They begin in 1566, and from that year to this there is no gap. Even the Civil War of the 17th Century does not seem to have disturbed the even tenor of their course. There are signs of carelessness in the very early years of this century, and again during the Incumbency of the Rev. Dr. Burgess between 1870 and 1880 ; and of course at any time single entries may have been occasionally omitted ; but in spite of such actualities and possibilities the Registers are a remarkably complete record for over 300 years.

The number of entries during the 325 years is as follows : Baptisms, 725 ; Marriages, 250 ; Burials, 520. Many of the marriages in the 17th and 18th centuries were of people who had nothing to do with Ickworth, and why they came there I don't know. It is plain that with an average of 2 Baptisms and 1½ Burial in a year, we have not got to deal with a population of thousands, nor even of hundreds. An interesting survey of Ickworth made in 1665 has lately been printed, which gives the number of acres in Ickworth belonging to the owner of the Hall as 1188, divided (excepting 76 acres of wood) amongst 18 farms. If the houses of those 18 farms were all in Ickworth, as they appear to have been, then they with cottages and other tenements that there probably were would bring the population up to between 100 and 200. But since John,

Lord Bristol, made Ickworth his home in 1702, and gradually removed the village and restored and enlarged the park, the population, I expect, has seldom reached 100. (See Census Returns, at the end of this Volume, p. 92.)

Of houses which might have seen the men of the 16th and 17th Centuries, scarcely one remains. Ickworth Lodge and perhaps the present Dairy may have done so, but no other. The original Hall, just outside the Churchyard wall, is clean gone. A dry summer shows where its foundations are, and the kitchen garden would not be where it is if the old Hall had not been where it was; except for that, there is no vestige of it above ground. The old Parsonage also is clean gone. (See page 83-87 of this vol.) The Parson's pond remains to show where it was, but that is all. The village is gone; the 18 farm houses are gone. Ickworth Lodge may represent one of them, and the Dairy may represent another; but the others have left nothing behind, not even a memory; had it not been for the Survey of 1665, one would never have so much as dreamed of their existence. The blacksmith's shop was on the site of the present Mordeboys Cottages, conveniently situated by the side of the then high road from Bury to Chevington. There Benjamin Summers shod horses whilst the first two Georges were on the throne, and I don't know how many of his fathers had done so before him.

With regard to the illustrations, the 5 heraldic shields printed separately with the letter-press are copied from the Visitation of Suffolk. I have elsewhere expressed my thanks to Mr. J. J. Howard for his permission to do so. After they had been printed I found amongst some papers belonging to my father drawings of all the shields (except one) in Ickworth Church. These drawings had been made by the Rev.—Francis, formerly curate of Great Saxham. I therefore had them engraved on two plates, of course leaving out the five which I had already copied from the Visitation of Suffolk. The one shield which Mr. Francis had not drawn was that of John, Lord Hervey, whose stone is under the pulpit and quite unreachable. However, I am able to include that also, as Mrs. George H. W. Hervey has been good enough to reach the unreachable, and make a rubbing of it. At the same time Mrs. Hervey was able to set at rest a doubtful point as to the date of birth of Lady Hervey. Gage (History of Thingoe Hundred) had made the inscription say that she was born Sept. 26, 1706; Mr. J. J. Howard (Visitation of Suffolk) and others had repeated this; but as she was a Maid of Honour in 1717, and married in 1720, it was obviously impossible. It now turns out that the inscription (correctly copied by Sir John Cullum) gives the year of her birth as 1700, and not 1706; so that "the uncertainty" (Dict. of Nat. Biog.:) was only the result of Mr. Gage's error.

I have elsewhere expressed my thanks to Mr. Gery Milner-Gibson-Cullum for sending me a transcript of Sir John Cullum's Notes on Ickworth, which I have printed at pp. 79-82.

I should like to have added the notes made by Henry Chitting, Chester Herald, soon after 1600, and those made by Francis Blomefield about 1720, both quoted by Gage (Thingoe Hundred), but I have not been able to find them out.

There only remains for me to express my best thanks to the Rev. James Giddens, Rector of Ickwerth, first for allowing me to transcribe and print these Registers, and secondly for his kindness in revising the proofs by the original volumes.

TOMB STONES IN ICKWORTH CHURCHYARD.

The following are the inscriptions on all the tomb stones in Ickworth Churchyard, copied by me in June 1891. My time being short, I left out the words "In memory of" or "Here lies" in every case; and also put the word "died" in the place of some of its longer equivalents. Beneath the covering of this little stone
 Lie the poor shrunk yet dear remains of one
 With merit humble, and with virtue fair,
 With knowledge modest, and with wit sincere,
 Upright in all the social paths of life,
 The friend, the daughter, sister, and the wife !
 So just in disposition of her soul,
 Nature left reason nothing to control ;
 Firm, pious, patient, affable of mind,
 Happy in life, and yet in death resigned.
 Just in the zenith of those golden days
 When the mind ripens ere the form decays,
 The hand of Fate untimely cut her thread,
 And left the world to weep that virtue fled,
 Its pride when living, and its grief when dead.

20. ARMS.—Hervey in lozenge.

Awhile oh linger, sacred shade !
 Till ev'ry solemn due be paid ;
 The tears from filial love that flow,
 The sighs that friendship long must know !
 But ah ! within this narrow space
 How each engaging virtue trace ?
 How shall each sweetness be defin'd
 That grace thy form, or bless thy mind ?
 Charms that in youth attractive shone,
 Glow'd ripe in their meridian sun,
 And spite of ruthless winter's rage,
 Melted into becoming age.
 Knowledge matured the fruits of sense,
 Nor shook the bloom of diffidence ;
 So silent and so modest too,
 As tasting but what others knew.
 Proud of humility, the sage
 In thy unvarying temper's page
 Or saw, or might have deign'd to see
 The beauties of Propriety.
 Nor while sustain'd each decent part
 Could Prudence self pervert thy heart ;
 Through life thy ev'ry friend the same,
 Each foe thy study to reclaim.

*The Cullum copy of this inscription has 1700, which is probably right.

Pain could not chase thy friendly smile ;
 Not to afflict was all thy toil ;
 Thy woes alone unwont to speak,
 For Patience dwelt upon thy cheek.
 But in the solemn scene of death
 How paint the calm of fleeting breath ?
 When fortitude resembled ease,
 And the last pang seem'd most to please !
 In vain the Sculptor or the Muse
 So sad, so sweet a theme pursues ;
 The chisel drops, th' unfinished strain
 Respects the son it sooths in vain.

Hon. Horace Walpole Esq., fecit.

THE CULLUM NOTES ON ICKWORTH CHURCH.

I am much obliged to Mr. Gery Milner-Gibson-Cullum for sending me a transcript of "Notes on Ickworth Church, Suffolk, by the Rev. Sir John Cullum, 6th Bart, F.R.S. and F.S.A. Taken fully 16th Feb, 1779." These notes have later additions to them in the handwriting of his brother, Sir Thomas Gery Cullum, and are amongst the MSS. at Hardwick House, near Bury St. Edmunds. I print the Cullum notes bodily, only omitting those inscriptions which I have already given. Sir John says: The pavement of the Chancel, which is not a small one, consists entirely of flat stones for the Hervey family; the earliest I can find is thus inscribed: Heere was buried William Harve Esquyer the 2 day of November 1592. (born 1509.)

Here was buried Frances Harve the wife of John Harve Esquyer the 22 day of Februarie 1620. (Her name was Bocking.)

Heere lieth buried the Bodie of John Harve Esquyer 1630. (He was the eldest son of William Harve Esq. and was 75 years old at his death.)

Here lyeth buried Dam Susan Hervey the wife of Sir William Hervey who dyed the 6 day of Feb. Ano Dom. 1637. (She was daughter of Sir Robert Jermyn of Rushbrook.)

Here lyeth buried Sir William Hervey who died 30 day of Sept. Ano Dom. in the year of our Lord 1660. (Born 1585. Son and Heir of the above John Hervey Esq.)*

Augustus Earl of Bristol died at London 15 Dec. 1779, and was buried in the Dormitory built by himself on 21.

Frederick Earl of Bristol, Bishop of Derry, died at Albano near Rome 8 July 1803, his body was removed from thence to Naples, and put on board a man of war to be conveyed to England in the Month of October, 1803; but it was not put on shore for several months, and was only deposited in the family burying place at Ickworth on 21 April, 1804.

Inscription on the obelisk in Ickworth Park. Sacred to the memory of Frederick Earl of Bristol, Bishop of Derry, who during 35 years that he presided over that see, endeared himself to all denominations of Christians resident in that extensive Diocese. He was the Friend and Protector of them all; his great Patronage was uniformly administered upon the purest and most disinterested principles. Various and important public works were undertaken at his instigation, and completed by his munificence; and hostile sects which had long entertained feelings of deep animosity towards each other were gradually softened and reconciled by his influence and example. Grateful for benefits which they can never forget, the inhabitants of Derry have erected at Ickworth, where his mortal remains are deposited, this durable record of their attachment. The Roman Catholic Bishop and the Dissenting Minister resident at Derry were among those who contributed to this Monument.

Opus hoc concivium benevolentia Patri institutum grato animo accepit et qua par est pietate auxit filius.

* Here follow Nos. 6, 1, 4, all of which Sir John calls "Modern", 17, 2, called "Modern—within the rails", 3, "Modern—next the last", 20, "New—within the rails", 25, 22, 16, 21, 24, 23, 32. S.H.A.H.

*After giving the inscription on the tombstone of Mary, Lady Hervey, (No. 24) and adding a sketch of her character from Lord Chesterfield's 199th letter to his son, and a notice of her in the dedication to her of Mr. Walpole's "Anecdotes of Painting in England," the Cullum MS goes on thus:—*The following inscription on an altar monument forms a strong contrast to the foregoing. Lady Hervey and honest Ned Day could not differ more widely from one another in their lives than do their epitaphs in their styles: in which affectation and refinement on one hand and plainness and simplicity on the other are probably characteristic of their respective subjects. (In the Churchyard.) Mr. Edward Day, born not of wealthy but of honest Parents, in the County of Cambridge, died the 20th of October, 1743, aged 59. In his younger years he served the Duke of Kingston: in his latter the Earl of Bristol, with credit and reputation. Though plac'd in a station of dependence, he was not servile or mean: though rais'd above the common rank of servants, he was not haughty or over-bearing. Unpractis'd in the arts of flattery or the guilt of hypocrisy, he spoke the dictates of his heart with an honest simplicity. Let others be transmitted to posterity fam'd for their learning, wealth or brave exploits: to whatever qualification he possess'd he added real worth and lustre by the single virtue of sincerity. This invigorated his respective duties to his Master, his Friends and Relations. By a prudent frugality he acquir'd a moderate fortune, which he divided equally among his relations; who out of gratitude and respect have erected this monument to his memory.

This Church belonged to the Abbey of Bury by the gift of Theodred Bishop of London. [Theodredus the good, Bishop of Elmham, the 25th Bishop of London, anno 938. See Beatson's Index.] The termination of his name is twice upon fragments of glass in the E. window, which is very ancient and strong. It is somewhat strange that there should not be a single memorial of the Drury family, from which the Ickworth estate passed into the Hervey by marriage.

On the only bell is this inscription, not antient ;

Tho : Gardener he did me cast ;

I'll sing his praise unto the last.

In Preston Churchyard about 2 miles from Brighton : In memory of Lady Emily Caroline Nassau Hervey, daughter of John Lord Hervey of Ickworth, eldest son of John first Earl of Bristol, who was called to the House of Peers during the life time of his father, and appointed Lord Privy Seal to King Geo : II. Her Ladyship died the 4th of June, 1814, in the 80th year of her age.

As the following inscription is somewhat singular and commemorates a Suffolk lady, I insert it in this collection. It is on a flat marble at the E. end of the S. isle of West Ham Church in Essex :—Here lyeth the body of the right honorable Lady Louisa Carolina Isabella Hervey, daughter to John Earl of Bristol, and wife to Sir Robert Smyth of Isfield in the County of Sussex Bart, who after 38 years marriage died May XI, 1770, aged 55.

A matron equal to all stations,

Worthy of the highest, content with the humblest.

In Beauty an ornament even to her Race ;

In Economy an example to her sex ;

In Benevolence an honour to her species.

Stay, wretched husband, stop thy heedless hand ;

Cease stars to count, cease numbering the sand ;

Whither, o whither would thy frantic grief !

From mortal praise tis vain to seek relief :

Vain the long roll of virtues to display ;

Thy votive brass and marble shall decay.

The sacred trust to nought material's given ;

Her virtues record and reward's in Heaven.

[This is the end of the Cullum MS so far as Ickworth is concerned.—

3. A faculty from ye Bishop of Norwich to make use of ye materials remaining of Ickworth Parsonage in ye repairs of Chedburgh, and an exemption from Ickworth dilapidations.

Charles by divine permission Lord Bishop of Norwich to our well beloved in Christ Joseph Alexander, Clerk, Rector of the parishes and parish Churches of Ickworth and Chedburgh in the County of Suffolk and Dioces of Norwich, health in our Lord. Whereas we have lately received a petition under the hand of you the said Joseph Alexander, shewing unto us that the Parsonage house of Ickworth aforesaid being at your first coming into that benefice (which is about twenty years since) was in great decay and not habitable, and nothing was or could be recovered from the widow of your predecessor, she being left in mean circumstance, was by you pulled down and rebuilt at above seven score pounds charge, that the said house was unfortunately burnt down by an accidentall fire about ten years since, only some pieces of timber being saved, and that there is a Parsonage house at Chedburgh aforesaid, (which said Rectories of Ickworth and Chedburgh are both at the presentation of the Right Honorable John Lord Hervey, true and undoubted patron of the same, and designed by his Lordship to be by succeeding Rectors held united,) which with some charge may be made convenient for the habitation of the Rector of both parishes and his family, and that the said parishes are but smal and very near contiguous ; and the profitts of both Rectories united but a bare competency for one Minister, and two houses rather a burden than of any use to the succeeding Rectors, wherein you humbly prayes our license and faculty to discharge you and your heirs from all ruins and dilapidations of the said Parsonage house of Ickworth, and to make use of the remaining materials in and about the repairing and adorning the Parsonage house and outhouses of Chedburgh aforesaid, which will cost thirty pounds ; Being certified of the truth and reasonableness of your said petition under the hands of divers neighbouring clergymen and gentlemen, who by virtue of our commission of inspection to them directed did view and inspect the same, and haveing received the consent of the said Right Honorable John Lord Hervey, the true and undoubted patron of both the said Parish Churches, as in and by your said petition and certificate and patron's consent filed in our principal Registry may more at large appear ; That in consideration of the premises we the said Bishop of Norwich by vertue of our power and authority ordinary and episcopal do hereby (as far as by law we may) by this our license and faculty to you the said Joseph Alexander given and granted exonerate and discharge you and your successors, Rectors of the said parish and parish Church of Ickworth aforesaid, from the rebuilding the said Parsonage house of Ickworth or any part thereof; and do also hereby empower you the said Joseph Alexander to apply the remaining materials of the said Parsonage house of Ickworth toward the repairing the said Parsonage house of Chedburgh, enjoyning you also to lay out thirty pounds or whatever sum shall be needfull to put the said Parsonage house of Chedburgh in good repair and make it convenient for the habitation of the Rectors of both the aforesaid parishes and their families according to the tenor of your said petition; And to certifie us or our Vicar General what you have done in the premises, (particularly what is the value of the said remaining materials of the said Parsonage house of Ickworth aforesaid, and how you have disposed of the same, and what money you have laid out in and about the repairing the said Parsonage house of Chedburgh aforesaid,) at or before the twenty ninth day of September next ensuing. Given under our episcopall seal the second day of February, in the year of our Lord Christ, one thousand, seven hundred and twelve, and of our consecration the fifth.

C. NORWICH.

I presume that some deficiency in the Episcopal Registers at Norwich prevented Mr. Gage from giving the date of the termination of the incumbencies of John Barret and William Sudbury, and the date of the incomings of their respective successors, John Buckenham and John Lockyer, or Loker as he is always called in the Ickworth Registers. Possibly the Ickworth Registers may supply those missing dates, a John Barret being buried in 1566, and a William Sudbury in 1644. The name Paman will be found in the Registers long after the Rector of that name had departed, and the Buckenhams also lingered on awhile after the coming of another Rector. One wonders where they lived, and what they did.

Robert Butts was son of William Butts, Rector of Hartest in Suffolk; he was educated at Bury Grammar School and Trinity College, Cambridge; Rector of Ickworth 1719; Dean of Norwich in 1731, Bishop of Norwich in 1733, translated to Ely in 1738, and died at Ely House, Holborn, in 1748. Several letters to him will be found in the Letter-books of John, Lord Bristol, who seems to have had a very sincere regard for him.

Charles Hervey was 5th son of John, 1st Earl of Bristol; born in 1703, educated at Queen's College, Cambridge, Rector of Ickworth and afterwards of Sproughton and Shotley; made a Prebendary of Ely in 1742, and died there in 1783.

Thomas Knowles is said by Allibone to have been a native of Ely and Fellow of Pembroke Hall, Cambridge. He was the author of some religious works. He was buried in Chedburgh Church, where there is a stone with this inscription: In memory of the Rev. Thomas Knowles D.D. Rector of Ickworth and Chedburgh, Prebendary of Ely, and Preacher of St. Mary's Church, Bury, who died Oct. 6, 1802, aged 78 years.

Henry Hasted was born at Bury St. Edmunds in 1771; educated at the Bury Grammar School and Christ's College, Cambridge; 6th wrangler in 1793; Preacher or Lecturer at St. Mary's, Bury, from 1802 to 1842; Rector of Ickworth and Chedburgh from 1803 to 1832, and Rector of Horringer from 1814 to his death in 1852, aged 81 years.

Arthur Charles Hervey, 4th son of Frederick William, 1st Marquis of Bristol, was born on Aug 20, 1808; educated at Eton and Trinity College, Cambridge, going out in the first class of the classical Tripos of 1830; appointed to the Rectory of Ickworth cum Chedburgh in 1832; in 1852 Chedburgh was separated from Ickworth, and Horningsheath or Horringer united to it instead, which two livings (Ickworth and Horringer) he held till 1869; appointed Archdeacon of Sudbury in 1862, and Bishop of Bath and Wells in 1869. Whilst these pages are passing through the press his long, active and useful life, active and useful to the very last, has reached its end. He died after a very short illness while on a visit at Hackwood House, near Basingstoke, on Saturday, June 9, 1894, aged 85 years, and was buried at Wells Cathedral on June 14. He was a contributor to Dr. Smith's Dictionary of the Bible, and to the Speaker's Commentary, and was also a member of the Old Testament Revision Company. He published two volumes of Parochial Sermons in 1850; a volume on the Genealogies of our Lord in 1853; and a volume of Sermons on the Inspiration of Holy Scripture (preached before the University of Cambridge in 1855) in 1856, besides single sermons, charges, lectures, etc.

It is, perhaps, worth noting that Lord Arthur Hervey and his two immediate predecessors together held the Rectory of Ickworth for 121 years, and might have held it (if Lord Arthur had not been promoted) for 146 years. Mr. Knowles, appointed by the first Lord Bristol who was born early in the reign of Charles II, held it for 55 years ; Mr. Hasted succeeding him held it for 29 years, and might have held it for 49 years ; Lord Arthur Hervey succeeding him held it for 37 years, and might have held it for 61 years.

On the promotion of Lord Arthur Hervey to the See of Bath and Wells in the latter part of 1869, the Rev. Dr. Burgess, Rector of Upper Chelsea, was appointed to the Rectory of Ickworth and Horringer.

At his death in 1881, the Rev. Arthur Linzee Chatterton Heigham was appointed.

At his resignation in 1883, the present Rector, the Rev. James Giddens, was appointed.

THE POPULATION.

The returns for 1841 give 1350 acres ; 12 inhabited houses, 1 uninhabited ; 31 males, 31 females ; Total 62.—Of these 62, 49 are set down as born in the County, and 13 elsewhere : 12 males and 10 females under 20 ; 19 males and 21 females over 20.

The returns for 1851 and 1861 I could not find in the British Museum.

The returns for 1871 give 1259 acres ; 12 inhabited houses ; 50 males, 65 females ; Total 115.

The returns for 1881 give 13 inhabited houses, occupied by 13 families, 1 uninhabited† house ; 44 males, 51 females ; Total 95.

Ickworth is a discharged Rectory, valued in the King's books at £7..11..5½

The money raised by the Parish Rates in 1803 was £92..1..6½, at 3s. 4d. in the pound.

* Probably the big house, which being empty would account for the considerable decrease in the population.—S.H.A.H.

† This would be Ickworth Lodge, which being empty would answer for a diminution in the population of about 20.
